

“Preserving the Past, Funding the Future” Bookmobile Fundraising Event

INDIVIDUAL TALKS ($10.00 each)

- ELIZABETH THOMSEN (9:30am-11am)
“Building Community through Photography”
Elizabeth Thomsen will speak about how Flickr and other photo sharing websites can be used to create social groups as well as statewide projects to digitize and make accessible photographs and documents pertinent to Massachusetts history.
- NANCY COFFEY & RICHARD SYMES (11am-12pm)
“Starting a Neighborhood History Project”
Learn how to start your own Neighborhood History Project while sharing the photos and experiences of two Beverly history buffs, Nancy Coffey and Richard Symes.
- DAVID MISHKIN (1pm-3pm)
“Identifying and Preserving Family Photography, Part 1”
About.com’s photo restoration and preservation expert David Mishkin will share his knowledge about how to save your family.
- MAUREEN TAYLOR (3pm-4pm)
“Identifying and Preserving Family Photography, Part 2”
Maureen Taylor, the Photo Detective, will discuss how to preserve and organize your family photo collection and interpret unidentified pictures.

TEN-MINUTE DIGITIZATION SLOT (approximately 5 photos) $5.00

A one-on-one session where you can have up to 5 photographs scanned for you and preserved on a free CD. Digitizing these images will allow you to share them with friends and family, have copies made, or simply have the peace of mind of knowing that you have a copy should anything ever happen to the original.

Individuals with photos brought in solely to share with library can have them scanned for free, as time permits. No CD will be provided in these instances.

ALL DAY REGISTRATION

Register for all four talks and one ten-minute digitization slot for a discounted price. $25.00 ($20.00 of fee is tax deductible)

INDIVIDUAL CONSULTATION WITH MAUREEN TAYLOR $20.00

We are offering 15-minute individual consultations with nationally known photo expert, Maureen Taylor. Only 4 slots are available. Those interested should call to reserve a slot & send their registration fee in with their registration form.

LUNCH (OPTIONAL) $10.00

Lunch can be provided for a fee. People can also bring their own food. Free water/coffee/soda is provided for all.

SPACE IS LIMITED – RESERVE YOUR SPOT EARLY!