

Tutor Session Kickoff
9:00am July 17, 2007
E174
Diane Smith & Lori Pennel

All 8 sessions have common structural elements:

- √ Intro delivered by a session coach that frames the hour content
- √ A guiding question (s)
- √ Learning objectives
- √ A scenario or two
- √ Learning Objects to investigate and practice applying
- √ Between session activity (ies)
- √ Brief feedback form

I have a primary project objective for this morning... I need to build a base of believers and implementers

A.] Upon completion of this session, tutors will agree to take on their 5 primary tasks:

- 1.) attend these training sessions 7 make sure they get something out of them
- 2.) work at getting familiar with identifying an iSkills need and resisting the impulse to solve the problem instead of introduce the solution
- 3.) practice matching iSkill needs to web based iSkills support tools (start with familiarizing yourself with the learning objects linked to these sessions)
- 4.) work with Lori and me to move this training to the next level (fall project extension)
- 5.) participate in assessment activities and focus groups as needed

B.] Upon completion of this session tutors will be able to distinguish the stream from the pipe

C.] Upon completion of this session tutors will contribute to the web site

Here are your guiding questions...

What are we doing here?

What can we do to make the most of our time together?

Today's session...

-  Quantum Computing
-  Let's Make A Deal
-  Tenacity
-  Tough Choices or Tough Times
-  Why you? Why now?

Final feedback task <http://www.noblenet.org/bhcc/eval.htm>

Date:

Please answer each question in one or two sentences:

1. What was the most meaningful or useful thing you learned during this session?

2. What question(s) remain upper-most in your mind as we end this session?