

CYCLE OF INFORMATION

Putting It All Together

- From the occurrence of an event, era, social movement, discovery.
- To the documentation of the event, era, etc.
- To how the evidence is disseminated.
- And how researchers (and term paper writers) can find this documentation.

Report of Event 	Time Frame 	Access To Information  (Where to Find)
Radio/TV/Internet News	Seconds/Minutes	TV News Indexes; Web Search Engines
Newspapers (print)	Day/Days+	Newspaper Indexes (Print & Electronic)
Magazines (print)	Week/Weeks	Periodical Indexes (Print & Electronic)
Journals (print & electronic)	6 months +	1. Periodical Indexes (Print & Electronic) 2. Bibliographies
Books	2+ years	1. Library Catalog; 2. Bibliographies
Reference Sources – e.g. encyclopedias, handbooks (print & electronic)	Average 10 years	1. Library Catalog; 2. Bibliographies