PARTING ODE.

By FREDERIC BRANDLESOME GREENHALGE, Lowell.

O glorious day that sees the consummation
Of long desired hopes and wishes dear!
That brings to us our longed for graduation,
And crowns the work of many a year!

Not with sad faces do we hail thy dawning,
Bearing to us our future's promise bright:
Why should we sorrow on that glorious morning
That follows weary night?

Nor with regret shall we through life remember—
Though Destiny may bear us far apart—
The friendships we have formed here, close and tender,
That gladden each fond heart.

So though our course at Phillips now is ended,
Though from her fostering care to-day we go,
Our love for school and classmates gently blended,
The bonds shall closer grow.
